Chief Justice Earl C. Warren
United States Supreme Court
Washington , D.C.

Dear Justice Warren,

Your appointment as head of the Presidential Commission was gratifying to all of us who have admired your work and who recognize the importance of the task you are undertaking.

Like most citizens I would like to contribute in some way at this time. I do not know what plans your Commission has for legal staff, but if there is anything I could do to help, please call on me.

Sincerely,

Norman Redlich
Professor of Law
